

Infection Control Action Plan 2019-2022

Objectives	Risks	Analysis and Evaluation of Exposure						How to Rectify Exposure	Actions to Reduce Risk	Monitoring Mechanisms	Projected Results	Performance Improvement Activities
		Likelihood of Occurrence		Seriousness of Risk
		Low	Med	High	Low	Med	High
Hazard Prevention and Control	Infectious Diseases that emerge include:								Monitor monthly doctor checkups. Monitor a healthy and safe working environment	No alarming outbreaks in 2019-2022	Implement updated trainings on Confronting Epidemics. Evaluate monthly review of incidents (if any)
	• Direct/Indirect Transmission	X					X
	• Air-borne		X					X	Monitor updated immunizations as well as regular checkups with a doctor	No alarming outbreaks in 2019-2022	Implement updated trainings on Confronting Epidemics. Evaluate monthly review of incidents (if any)
	• Vector-borne		X					X	Monitor and ensure cleanliness of setting, assess routine cleaning regularly through disinfection	No alarming outbreaks in 2019-2022	Implement updated trainings on Confronting Epidemics. Evaluate monthly review of incidents (if any)
Training for Employees, Supervisors and Managers	• Droplet Transmission		X					X	Monitor and assess disinfection of areas on a regular basis	No alarming outbreaks in 2019-2022	Implement updated trainings on Confronting Epidemics. Evaluate monthly review of incidents (if any)
	New and common epidemics, outbreaks		X					X	Monitor news regarding epidemics and remain updated on research referring to	100% of required staff trainings will be held. All trainings will be held pro-actively	Implementation of Outbreak and Safety trainings
Management Commitment and Employee Involvement	Non-compliance with health and safety regulations	X							Monthly review of standards and progress, internal reviews, ensure compliance with regulations	100% of required staff trainings will be held. All trainings will be held pro-actively	Monthly internal reviews and evaluation

