

CLIENT KEYS TO RESIDENCE

All clients will be given keys to the housing unit or residence they reside in. If there are health and safety concerns about the client having a key to the residence their access to keys can be limited by the client's treatment team and must be approved by the Client Rights Committee. This limitation would be included in the ISP/PCP and would be assessed periodically for continuation.

This forms meets these standards

Authority: §441.301(c)(4)
